Beulah Beryl Garlitz

Died: Oct. 7, 2017

JOHNSON CITY — Beulah Beryl Garlitz, 94, of Johnson City, entered into the presence of God Saturday while at Court-yards Senior Assisted Living.

She was born Jan. 17, 1923, on a country farm near Kingwood, West Virginia. She was a daughter of the late Marshall Glen Hoffman and Cynthia Pearl Messenger Hoffman.

After high school, in 1941, she entered the school of nursing in Uniontown, Pennsylvania.

On Sept. 19, 1942, she married William Morris Garlitz on his 20th birthday.

While her husband was off serving his country during World War II, she went to work in a defense plant until the war ended.

The family moved several times and went to Arizona in June 1962.

She attended dental school in Phoenix, Arizona, to become a dental assistant, and later became an instructor at the school.

She accepted Christ as her personal Savior when she was in her early twenties. Over the years, she sang in choirs, taught Sunday School classes and worked in the church wherever she was needed.

Beulah is survived by her daughters: Donna Marie James, of Greeneville, and Marian Beth Shane, of Morristown; one granddaughter: Karen (John) Morrison; five grandsons: Jesse (Heidi) James, Frank, (Laura) James, Scott (Kimberly) Cowden, Jason Cowden and Ryan Cowden; a step-granddaughter: Jacquelyn (Donald) Taylor; eight great-grandchildren; one great-great-grandchild; and sisters: Glenda Smith and Freida Conneway.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband of 72 years: William M. Garlitz; six brothers: Vernon, Oren, Harry, Orwig, Richard and Ray Hoffman; and five sisters: Mabel Woods, Opal Wilson, Grace Bittinger, Ruby Allen and Effie Bolyard.

A celebration of Beulah's life will be held at 4 p.m. Saturday in the Sunrise Chapel of Tetrick Funeral & Cremation Services in Johnson City with The Rev. Pete Tackett officiating.

She will be laid to rest with her husband at Mountain Home National Cemetery in a private ceremony.

In lieu of flowers, an honorary gift may be made to Antioch Baptist Church 1014 Antioch Lane, Johnson City, TN 37604.

The family expressed a special thanks to the caregivers at Brookdale Senior Living Solutions, The Courtyards Senior Assisted Living and Avalon Hospice of Johnson City for their love and devotion to their mother.

Memories and condolences may be shared at www.tetrickfuneralhome.com.

This obituary was written to honor Beulah's life by her family.

Linda Easterly

Died: Oct. 10, 2017

Linda Easterly, 68, of Marcella Drive, Mosheim, passed away Tuesday at her home.

She was a former employee of MECO and retired from the Greene County School System.

Mrs. Easterly attended Lord's Tabernacle Church.

Survivors include her husband of 49 years: Stanley Easterly; daughters and son-in-law: Ale-sha and Scott Randolph, and Angel Easterly Williams, who was her caretaker for the last three years; grandchildren:

Laci Randolph and fiancé Ron Hale, Christopher Church and Daniel Ball; a brother: Rodney Hearing; special nieces: Sandy Meade, Daphne Mathes and Brandy Kelton; nephews: Billy and Bubba Easterly; a sister-in-law and two brothers-in-law: Brenda and Dayton Easterly, and Santa Easterly; special neighbors: Betty Hensley and Betty Fletcher; and a special friend: Karen Dean.

She was the daughter of the late Lester Mathes and Thelma Lawing, and was preceded in death by three brothers: Lester, Tubby, and Tommy Mathes; her mother-in-law and father-in-law: Elden and Edna Easterly; two brothers-in-law: Denver and Leonard Easterly; a sister-in-law: Juanita Easterly; and one nephew: Michael Easterly.

The family will receive friends 4-7 p.m. today at Kiser-Rose Hill Funeral Home with the funeral service following at 7 p.m. in the chapel. The Rev. Johnny "Bo" Ragan and the Rev. James Sauceman will officiate.

Interment will be held at 10 a.m. Friday in Philadelphia Cemetery. Family and friends are asked to meet at the funeral home at 9 a.m. Friday to go in procession to the cemetery.

Pallbearers will be Scott Randolph, Ron Hale, Daniel Ball, Billy Easterly, Bubba Easterly and Harold Stamferd.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.kiserrosehillfuneralhome.com.

Joan Wolfe

Died: Aug. 24, 2017

Joan Wolfe, 94, of Greeneville, passed away Aug. 24 at Johnson City Medical Center.

Mrs. Wolfe was born June 7, 1923, in London, England, to Henry and Ada Douglas.

She worked at the U.S. Embassy in London, where she met Lawrence "Larry" Wolfe, whom she later married in 1952.

The Wolfes moved often while Larry was in the military. Joan worked as a librarian on base, retiring in 1987.

Following retirement, the Wolfes lived in the United States for over 64 years, settling first in Goldsboro, North Carolina, then finally in Tamarac, Florida.

Mrs. Wolfe was an avid reader, student of history and lover of classical music and pets. She was rarely without a dog by her side, and was patron of the ASPCA and Humane Society.

She is survived by her daughter and son-in-law: Sarah and Henry George, of Greeneville; her brother and sister-in-law: Thomas and Pearl Douglas; and a niece Jacqueline Douglas, all of London, England; and her grandson and granddaughter-in-law: Dr. Ian George and Dr. Elizabeth Moffett-George, of Centennial, Colorado.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Lawrence Wolfe.

A graveside service will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday at Mt. Pisgah United Methodist Church Cemetery.

Thoughts and memories may be shared with the family at www.jeffersmortuary.com.

Jeffers Funeral & Cremation Service is in charge of the arrangements.

Jodie Harrison
